

French

Professor Frances Sikola Chevalier (Department Chair and Program Director).

The French program at Norwich is designed to give students a thorough mastery of speaking, aural comprehension, and reading and writing skills in French and to produce cultural literacy in the fascinating and complex francophone world. Norwich maintains a student exchange program with the renowned French military academy, l'École Spéciale Militaire de Saint-Cyr in Coëtquidan, France. Students in the Corps of Cadets with a distinguished GPA and advanced proficiency in French may apply to participate in the program.

Courses

FR 111 Beginning French I 6 Credits

The main purpose of this intensive course is to lead students to communicate in French at a basic level, to appreciate the French-speaking world, and to develop cultural awareness. In a highly interactive environment, students learn to understand, speak, read, and write French. French-language films, videos, and music presented in lab sessions are selected to reinforce the cultural material discussed in class, improve speaking and listening skills, and address differences in nonverbal communication. Not open to students who have successfully completed FR 205 or higher. Classroom 6 hours, laboratory 2 hours. Prerequisite: Appropriate score on placement exam.

FR 112 Beginning French II 6 Credits

A continuation of FR 111 in which language skills are brought to a level enabling students to participate more fully in general conversation, to read more sophisticated passages, and to write with a firmer command of syntactical structures. Cultural competency is further developed. Classroom 6 hours, laboratory 2 hours. Prerequisite: FR 111, NU language placement, or equivalent. Not open to students who have successfully completed FR 205 or higher.
