

Political Science

Program Coordinator: Jason F.Jagemann

Associate Professors Michael Andrew, Jason Jagemann, and Yangmo Ku; Assistant Professor Michael Thunberg.

Mission:

The Political Science program emphasizes the objectives of the liberal arts, which are to help the student cultivate powers of analysis and exposition in reading, writing, and communication; to expand the student's intellectual horizons; and to increase the student's knowledge and curiosity. The program explores the realm of politics; its vocabulary, its principal concepts and strategies, its ethics, and its expedencies. To do so, the program encourages students to appreciate and understand theories about government and politics, as well as the methods of the discipline.

Goals:

- Develop skills which enable students to have successful and rewarding careers.
- Provide students with a working knowledge of the vocabulary, concepts, ethics, and strategies of politics as well as an appreciation of how politics and public policy impact the lives of people locally, nationally, and globally.
- Give students the opportunity to do independent research and develop their own ideas in the field of political science by being mentored by professional political scientists.

Outcomes:

- Students initiate and complete research projects as well as cogently present research findings.
- Students apply the skills they learn in the classroom to understand and evaluate political and policy processes and outcomes.
- Students demonstrate an understanding of the political and policy processes in a variety of domestic and international settings.
- Students are prepared for the job market and/or graduate or law school.

Careers in this Major:

- Military Officer
- Lawyer
- Intelligence Officer
- Political Scientist
- Public Administrator
- Policy Analyst
- Foreign Service Officer

Internships:

The Political Science Program has a strong record of supervising internships for students throughout the United States. The intent of the internship is to provide students with opportunities to apply their classroom learning and to enhance their academic program through practical experience. Students find internships as an invaluable experience through which they can explore potential careers and examine the links between the theory and practice of politics and government.

Norwich University also maintains an institutional affiliation with The Washington Semester Program (WSP), which is the oldest, most prestigious, and well-known experiential education program in the world. This is a dynamic program that takes you outside of the classroom and into the real world. You gain experience and contacts to jump-start your career and get a taste of professional life while you experience the bustling pace of the capital city. Whatever your career interests, the WSP offers a variety of unique and intensive programs that will provide you with a learning opportunity that challenges your mind and will change your life.
