

Asian Studies Curriculum Overview

Before beginning their Asian Studies minor, students are strongly encouraged to take one or more language courses in their Asian region of choice (at Norwich, at least one full semester of Beginning Chinese). Asian Studies are by nature interdisciplinary studies of non-Western culture(s). Language study is important to understanding different cultures as English in almost all cases is not the predominant spoken nor written language and the majority of written and archival materials on Asia are not available in English.

Minor

Asian Studies Minor Curriculum Map 2019-2020 Catalog

The Asian Studies minor requires a minimum of 18 credits (6 courses) divided among three area studies components.

Students must complete one (1) Introductory Asian Studies course, three (3) Cultural and Historical Studies courses, and two (2) Political, Economic, and Sociological Studies courses as listed below.

- Students majoring in History, International Studies, Political Science or Studies in War & Peace may use no more than two courses to apply to this minor and their major.
- Students majoring in Political Science or International Studies must complete both PO 202 and PO 215; all other majors must complete either PO 202 or PO 215 as a prerequisite to enrolling in a 300 level political science course.
- Students who major or minor in Chinese may take only one (1) Chinese language class to satisfy the three (3) course requirement for the Cultural and Historical Studies category.
- No more than two of the six courses may be transfer courses.
