

Music Curriculum Overview

Music offers courses in music appreciation and history, as well as instruction and performance opportunities for singing and instrumental work.

Note: Three sections of a 1-credit course may be combined to fulfill one 3-credit free elective towards graduation. No more than one free elective may be earned in this manner.