

University Resources

The University offers many support services to aid each student in their academic career. The following section highlights those services and each student is encouraged to visit each areas website both externally and through the internal websites or reach out to those individuals within each department. The academic advisor may also serve as a resource to navigating the support services as well as the Center for Student Success and the Academic Achievement Center.