

Business Administration

Students who complete a Business Administration minor understand the relationships between marketing, quantitative theory, accounting, economic principles, and financial, human, and organizational management.

A student with a major in International Business may not also minor in Business Administration.

Minor

Business Administration Minor 2021-2022 Catalog

A student with Accounting or Management major is ineligible to declare the minor. Approval is required by the School's Director. Each course requires a grade of C or higher.

AC 205	Principles of Accounting-Financial	4
EC 201	Principles of Economics (Macro)	3
EC 202	Principles of Economics (Micro)	3
MG 309	Management of Organizations	3
MG 314	Marketing Management	3
Choose one of the following courses:		3-4
AC 206	Principles of Accounting-Managerial	4
EC 106	The Structure and Operation of the World Economy	3
FN 311	Corporate Finance	3
CS 120	Business Applications & Problem Solving Techniques	3
MG 101	Introduction to Business	3
MG 319	International Dimensions of Business	3
MG 341	Business Law I	3
MG 351	Organizational Behavior	3
MG 408	Human Resources Management	3
Total Cr.		19-20